New Gymnasium Contract Opened Here Thursday

Bids for construction of the new gymnasium on the campus of West Texas State College were opened Thursday and it was found that Neill Singleton of Amarillo was the low bidder.

The Board of Regents will meet in Dallas on February 10 at which time the bids will be reviewed and a contract entered into between the Regents and contractor. The contract price will be $379,000. This amount is in line with the estimated price of the architect on the cost of the building.

The new gym will be located on the lots west of Buffalo Stadium. It will be necessary to remove the barracks which are now on these lots in order to start construction in the near future.

The four barracks have been sold to a Turkey resident who will move the buildings in the near future. All families living in these barracks have been taken care of by the college and found new places in which to live. The barracks brought $5,000.

Plans are being drawn for the new library building, and it is hoped that a contract for this construction will be let by the Board of Regents in May.

The gymnasium was placed ahead of the library in order that the building might be completed in time for the basketball season next year. It is planned to have the building completed about the time for the opening of the fall term of college.

Raders and Farris Draw Two Years in Robbery Charge

The Rader twins and James Farris were tried in district court Monday and Tuesday. All three were found guilty of aggravated assault by the jury and given a two year sentence in jail.

The three were charged with robbery with fire arms when they took the car of a radio engineer. The defense argued that the three "borrowed" the car for the purpose of getting into Amarillo.

Only one of the twins testified, declaring that he did not know Farris had the gun. Farris admitted that he had the gun, which he had hidden in the bushes outside the Potter county court house before their escape. He is under penitentiary sentence, and has yet to be tried by jail breaking.

Farmers Hear Plan Creation of Soil District

An instructional meeting of Randall county land owners was held Wednesday afternoon at the court house by representatives of the Texas Soil Conservation Board. 133 farmers and land owners attended the meeting and recommended that the State Board call an election of Randall county land owners to determine whether or not a Soil Conservation District should be formed in Randall county.

The State Board does not meet again until near the end of February. The usual procedure is for

March of Dimes Extended To February 11th

The March of Dimes campaign which was to officially end on the 31st day of January, has been extended until February 11, it was announced this week by campaign director, Mrs. C. O. Elkins.

Reason for the extension of the 1950 campaign, is the fact that Randall County has fallen short of the goal set for Randall County's part in the fight against infantile paralysis.

On Monday evening, February 6, at the Canyon High School Gymnasium, basketball games between the boys and girls teams of Canyon High and Dumas High School will be played and all proceeds will go to the March of Dimes, it was announced by Supt. E. A. Wooten.

Poll Taxes Are Short in Randall For This Year

Poll tax payments in Randall county are short this year, according to a check up from the two collections offices Wednesday morning.

Payments in Canyon will number approximately 1750, when the mail is worked up this morning.

R. M. Allred reported that the Amarillo office in Randall county issued less than 1500 receipts, but he hoped that the incoming mail would push this number to above the 1500 mark.

There will be a total of 3250 votes this year, plus those who are over

Parker Heads C of C for the Coming Year

A record attendance of 203 persons attended the annual banquet of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce Friday night. The large audience heard an inspiational address by Dr. James P. Cornette, and listened with great interest to the introduction of Canyon's 1949 leading citizen by Dr. Ples Harper.

Dr. R. A. Neblett was the unanimous selection of a group of 15 representative citizens for this honor, and was awarded a fitting plaque. His selection had been a carefully guarded secret from the time of his selection until the announcement came at the close of the program. No one was more surprised than Dr. Neblett, himself. In the recitation of his accomplishments of the past year, Mr. Harper pointed to his work in the various civic organizations, the Chamber of Commerce, his church and the Canyon schools. He is chairman of the board of trustees. Dr. Neblett is owner of the Neblett Hospital, and has been a prominent worker in all community affairs.

The financial report of Executive Secretary A. B. Holt showed the collection of $4,565.20 for the year of 1949. The largest item of expense for the year was $1239.34 for new street markers. Canyon's part in bringing a plane load of legislators to the campus and to the Palo Duro Canyon was $395. At the present time there are 145 members of the Chamber, but this number should be greatly increased during the coming year.

Among the visitors introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Newton Harrell of Claude; Frank Friauf of the Globe-News; Roy Clovinger, Ed Moyer and Norris Ewing of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cubaniss of the Amarillo Times; Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Axtell of Spring Lake, who gave their splendid ranch last year to Boys' Ranch; and three Santa Fe officials.

Dr. Cornette reviewed his two years as a citizen of Canyon. "I am making a report to you, the stockholders in West Texas State," Stated Dr. Cornette.

According to a report of the State Board of Education, there has been

Sen. Hazlewood Presides Over Texas Senate

SENATOR GRADY HAZLEWOOD

Senator Grady Hazlewood of Randall county was selected lieutenant governor and president protem of the Senate at the opening of the special session in Austin Tuesday.

Senator Hazlewood is one of the best known members of the upper house of the legislature, and his selection is a distinct recognition of his ability. He is a former district attorney of the 47th judicial district and maintains a farm north of Canyon. He has his law office in Amarillo.

Wayside Seeks Aid of Canyon Hiway Crossing

Plans are being made to present plans to the State Highway Commission for a crossing on the Palo Duro Canyon at Wayside, according to John T. McGehee, who was here Saturday. A delegation will go to Austin when plans will be presented to urge this designation.

The proposed highway will run from Borger to Post, and delegations from each county will be called upon to make the trip to Austin and to participate in urging the necessity of this highway.

Mr. McGehee points out the long distance that citizens of his community must travel in order to reach their county seat at Claude. It is impossible to cross the Palo Duro when the roads are bad, and most citizens prefer the long drive to even attempting to cross the Palo Duro at any time.

"I want to see the people of Canyon actively supporting this much needed highway," stated Mr. McGehee.

Commissioners on First Trip For Joint Inspection

All members of the Commissioners Court, accompanied by Sheriff M. E. Cantrell, started on the inspection of county jails in various parts of the Panhandle. A dust storm haulted the group before the commissioners were able to reach all of the towns selected for the first day's trip.

County jails in Tulia, Hereford and Dimmitt were the first ones inspected. The court intends visiting jails in all of the Panhandle counties in order to get the best information possible regarding the proposed new jail.

The City Commission has notified the Commissioners Court that due to continued criticism of the jail facilities in Canyon the old city jail will be discontinued at the first possible minute. No date for ending the arrangements between the city and county was set, allowing the Commissioners Court ample time to secure better jail facilities.

No decision has been reached as to the location of the proposed jail, although it is reported that one corner of the court house lawn is being discussed as a possible location. Housing quarters for the sheriff or for the county jailer will be included in the plans for the new jail, according to those who have been discussing the matter.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Bond Issue For Highway Paving or Suffer Much Greater Loss

If there has been any doubt in the mind of any citizen of Canyon of the necessity of voting bonds to widen the right-of-way of Highway 87 through Canyon this should have been dispelled long ago as the facts have been revealed.

Yes, it is going to cost money, so let's get this question settled. Will it be worth the amount?

All you need to do is look at what is happening over the nation. In those towns and cities where it is impossible to widen highways, the states are simply by-passing these municipalities. It could happen to Canyon. This is not a threat, but a reality. If Canyon does not carry out the plans of the state, we shall wake up one of these fine mornings with Highway 87 by-passing Canyon. This would be a much more expensive experience for Canyon than the small bond issue which will be needed to carry out the plans of the State Highway Commission.

It has been found that voting bonds is the next step in this improvement program. Bonds must be voted even before condemnation proceedings are started. This is the law of the state. If the election fails, it will be admission on our part that we do not intend co-operating with the state, and therefore the state will not be very anxious to cooperate with us in the future. When the bonds are approved, only a sufficient amount of the bonds will be sold to carry out the program. If all of the $95,000 bond issue is not needed, the money will not be used.

Canyon has been very fortunate in the past to have secured so much public improvement for so small amount of money. Canyon's finances are in excellent condition. Mayor W. A. Warren states that the proposed $95,000 bond issue can be financed with only a slight increase in taxes. He has the figures to back up his assertion.

Securing additional stop lights on the highway, and installing a white way through Canyon will greatly improve Highway 87, and improve business along the highway. Both of these improvements are contemplated in this widening program.

The group of citizens who heard a full discussion of the subject was thoroughly convinced that the bond issue is absolutely necessary, and that the procedure is being carefully planned and will be carried out most economically.

When the bond issue is presented to the voters, we have an obligation to go to the polls and support it for the future growth and development of Canyon.

Another Allred Bobs Up— Jimmie By Name From Plains

Another Allred has entered Texas politics. James V. Allred, former Attorney General and former Governor, is now a United States judge—for life.

Now comes James L. Allred seeking the post of State land commissioner. He seeks to oust Bascom Giles, who has held the post for 10 years. Bascom Giles threatened to run for Governor this year, but the death of Governor Jester upset the plans of several "politically great" in Texas.

Young Allred is a product of Silverton. He was with the Amarillo Times, both as sports writer and a member of the typographical union. He now owns a weekly newspaper at Mansfield.

Allred is going up against a tough opponent in announcing against Giles. The present commissioner has lived on a farm near Austin for many years, and was a former member of the House of Representatives. He has a wide state-wide following. Allred is a rather unassuming fellow, who knows few people outside of his usual beat in the Panhandle.

Maybe he is relying upon the Allred name. The average voter, when he goes to the polls, knows little about the candidates for minor political offices in Texas. There was a time when the name "Terrell" almost assured the candidate certain election. Maybe the name "Allred" will take hold, especially since this new-comer lacks only the middle initial of having the same name as our former distinguished citizen. Who knows—that is, for sure.

J. E. McDonald Retires From State Post After 20 Years

We see that J. E. McDonald has bowed out as Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas, and after 20 years in the office will not seek re-election.

The voluntary retirement of old Mac will rremove one of the focal points of fireworks from Texas politics. It simply won't be half as much fun for the voters of Texas to participate in the primaries without the presence of McDonald to keep the political pot boiling.

McDonald is the chief anti-New Dealer in Texas. He started in by fighting the Roosevelt theory of agriculture, and stayed right in the game, fighting every Democratic administration and every Secretary of Agriculture. He spoke openly his convictions. He did not hide behind any sort of political shadow for fear that the voters might take offense of his declaration.

Regardless of what the "city farmers" might have thought of McDonald, the farmers from the forks of the creek stayed by him through 10 terms, and always re-elected him. No doubt he would have been re-elected in 1950 had he chosen to run—in spite of all the insults that would have been hurled at his head by the brass hats who think that the Democratic administration in Washington can do no wrong.

Foreign Oil Hurts Treasury of Texas to Extent Millions

Importation of foreign oil is a great threat to Texas. It has become so unpopular that several companies have announced reduction of the volume of imports.

Perhaps under our American way of life we are apt to say, "Give us oil at any price, just so it is lower than home production."

On the other hand, when this imported oil is costing the state millions of dollars in the loss of taxes, we begin to see that cheap oil is not cheap oil to any one.

50 Years of Achievement Was Possible By Free Enterprise

The world is looking over the achievements of the past 50 years, and is wondering what developments will take place during the coming half century. This is the middle of the 20th century. It has witnessed the greatest achievements that the world has ever seen in any period of time. The great individualists of the period were responsible for the achievements of the era.

Look back at 1900, and you will wonder how the mind of man has ever achieved so much in so short a time. Paved roads, with 30 million cars; air conditioned trains and homes; airplanes in common use; two-thirds of all the telephones in the world; radios in every home, with television rapidly coming to the small sections; the best informed people on the face of the earth; medical research which has stretched the span of life from 37 year in 1900 to 67 years in 1950; all of these have been accomplished in a few short years—by free enterprise; not by government supervision.

Mass production enables us to buy electric lights for 10 cents which cost $1.80 in 1900; good cars for around $2,000 which sold at $5,000 in 1910; and every other commodity on the market at similar reductions in price.

At the same time, citizens should be demanding better and better government at lower costs—but we are not getting it! We are rushing to Washington for everything that we need, instead of doing something for ourselves. No wonder government thinks that we must take over!

Today the tendency is to magnify—and perhaps glorify strikes. A few power-mad labor racketeers are demanding public attention, while millions of employees and employers work peacefully together year after year, with no friction and no strikes.

We have discovered—much to the surprise of some folks—that big business can be honorable, and sympathetic. The buying public will boycott any business which might seek to chisel and collect unjust profits. The Ford company is the only big business in America within the control of any one family or even small group. Other big business enterprises are owned by thousands of persons who have their worldly earnings invested for the purpose of making a living for themselves.

Yes, and we are finding out that each and every persons owes an obligation to his community. His community is a collection of families, just like his own. These families will survive and prosper just in proportion to the intelligent interest that he takes in them.

Each person has an obligation to his government to cast an intelligent vote upon public questions in 1950 and 1952. There never has been a time when more thought should be taken to public affairs—not party affairs, but PUBLIC AFFAIRS. The day has passed when we can shirk our public obligations, and "Let George do it." We are 'George,' and must shoulder our responsibilities.

Our schools and our churches have made wonderful progress throughout the years. The only question mark in our mind is have they kept up with industrial program? Again the question resolves into the accomplishment of the individual citizen.

There is every reason to believe that the second half of the 20th Century will see a continued improvement in our every day life—a perfection which we have not yet reached in this first half.

Staying With Friends, Even When Wrong May Be a Fault

It is a fine characteristic to stand by your friends, when your friends are right, and you know they are right. RFD was one of this sort. Truman seems to be so inclined. Both surrounded themselves with men who had the same theory of government.

Alger Hiss has been convicted of lying in federal court. He has been convicted in the eyes of the people of trying to sell America short to the Russians.

Dean Acheson, Secretary of State came to the defense of Hiss, upholding his hands and his reputation. The Secretary says that he will stand by the man whom he knows so well. This may be a good characteristic, or a very, very poor one.

This is the time when Hiss needs all of the support that he can muster. If he gave the Russians vital information, he was not the only American who was fooled by the Russians. Some silly sentimentalists claims that America is not trying to understand the Russian today. The balance of us know that the Russians traded Roosevelt, Truman, Churchill and every Allied leader out of their shirts, and have been using OUR war equipment for their own benefits. That is enough to convict them, if they had done, and were not doing a thousand other things today for which they are held in utter contempt by all peace-loving peoples.

At any rate, Hiss has been pronounced guilty of telling a lie. A liar in public life is pretty far down the line in our public esteem.

Friendly City Is the Slogan

A Canyon citizen submitted a slogan for Amarillo: "Wines and Fines." Naturally this was not accepted. "Amarillo—the Friendly City," was the winner. Since Canyon has been taken in by Amarillo as a part of her census, we must live up to our part of the bargain. Canyon is now a part of a 100,000 population—we hope. We must continue to be a friendly city. Canyon was always noted as a friendly place, so let's just continue our reputation.

STILL THE SAME

Watson returned to his native town after some years abroad.

"Has Watson changed much in the years he has been away?" asked one who had heard of his return, but had not yet seen him.

"No," said the man addressed, "but he thinks he has."

"In what way?"

"Oh, he persists in talking about what a fool he used to be?"

HOW BANKERS GROW RICH

A grizzled old banker in a rural town was being interviewed on his successful career

"How did you get started in the banking business?" he was asked.

" 'Twas simple," he replied. "I put up a sign sayin' 'Bank.' A feller came in an' gave me $100. Another came by with $200.

"An' sir, by that time my confidence had reached such a p'int that I put in $50 of my own money.

BOYCE HOUSE "Gives You Texas"

A tribute to the home town weekly:

From out of the nowhere, all through life's storms and trials, and to the very threshold of the pearly gates, the home town newspaper carries the individual.

When Dr. Stork deposits six pounds of pink and shriveled cussedness, squalling, at the home of the parents, the home paper assumes its helpful watchfulness over the new-born babe's destiny by adding four pounds and making him "a fine, bouncing ten-pound boy."

When he reaches manhood and wanders from the old nest and, through the influence of his uncle George, gets a job driving a bus for the Insect Inn a Bingville, the old home paper comes through and puts him in "a lucrative position of trust."

And when he persuades some misguided female to share his life, the home paper describes him as "a sterling young business man, brave and handsome."

Then when middle age has thinned his hair and put his waist line in the lead, the home paper brushes the dandruff off his coat, obscures the tobacco juice on his shirt front and makes him "a substantial citizen."

When politics gets into his system and he tries to get elected to the legislature, he is again made over by the same cheerful agency from the ordinary bonehead he is into "a friend of the people, whose statesmanlike qualities commend him to the thoughtful consideration of the voters."

And finally when his old form is ready to return whence it came and perhaps Satan stands smiling, ready to receive the sin-singed soul, the home paper throws its last bluff and tries to sneak him past St. Peter with the choicest collection of fairy tales to which his career has given rise.

Dear old home paper, cheerful, hopeful, old fictionist that you are. How commonplace most of us would be, were it not for the great, big charitable heart that guides you.

Regents To Let Contract For College Chapel

A contract will be let for construction of a chapel on the campus of West Texas State at the meeting of the Board of Regents in Dallas on February 11. All citizens who are interested in the operation of the chapel are called upon to present their views to the Board at that time.

Dr. J. A. Hill, president emeritus, put on the financial campaign during his last year in office, hoping to raise $50,000. The campaign was short of the goal, but more than $43,000 in cash was turned over to the Board of Regents for the construction of the chapel.

Wedding & Cochran of Amarillo were the low bidders on the chapel, according to information compiled Thursday in the office of President James P. Cornette. In order to come within the amount of money available a number of alternates were made in the plans of the chapel. The bid of around $27,000 contemplated the most economical design, and will make possible a change in design for more expensive finishing material.

Adoption of a set of rules to govern the use of the chapel was brought about by a petition from five local citizens, outlining the purposes for which they believed that the chapel should be dedicated. These regulations will be in line with those adopted by the Regents for the operation of chapels on the campuses of other state colleges.

In addition to using the chapel for any and all non-denominational services, conferences, weddings, funerals and other recognized functions, it was recommended that no services be conducted in the chapel during the regular church services of the churches of Canyon.

When announcement is made that he is ready for applications, it is hoped that those in Randall county who are willing to take the count will confer with Mr. Shaller. A full and accurate count of all persons living* in Randall county will be sought this year, and every effort made by the various civic organizations to assist those selected with the count.

Lt. and Mrs. F. E. Newberry and Lynda were recent visitors in the home of his sister, Mrs. Eugene T. Zachry, his aunt, Mrs. Ed Mickle and cousin, Mrs. Loyd Childers. Lt. Newberry has been assistant Finance Officer at Las Vegas, Air Force Base, Nevada. He visited here while enroute to St. Louis, Mo., where he will attend an Army Finance School for 5 months.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, who sold their home here and moved to California in the fall, have moved back to Canyon, permanently, they say.

Worried over —your future?

"Is there anyone who isn't?" Before you say that . . . look around you. At certain folks you know in your community. At famous ones you read about as well. The ones who seem to have a kind of strength, an inner confidence, a point of view that makes them seem so sure of where they're going. It can't be just coincidence that these are the men and women who—go to church!

For nothing can take the place of church in your life—in anyone's life.

By turning to religion, by reaffirming their faith, new thousands every day are gathering new strength, new hope, new courage.

Families, finding themselves through faith, are being brought closer...becoming real families, strong against the world, happier, more tolerant among themselves.

Young folk, finding themselves through faith, are learning the true values that make them want to spurn the false.

Men and women of the workaday world are gaining a new sense of "the balance of things" . . . the inner security that brings success to work as well as to life . . . by finding themselves through faith.

Can you honestly say that things have been better for you, going it alone? Or wouldn't you rather join these neighbors . . . and find a happier, more successful life—through faith!

Roger W. Straus: "Whenever I feel tired or discouraged it is my custom to turn my thoughts to God, if possible in a synagogue; if not, wherever I may be. Never yet have I done so without being refreshed and encouraged."

Find yourself through faith —come to church this week

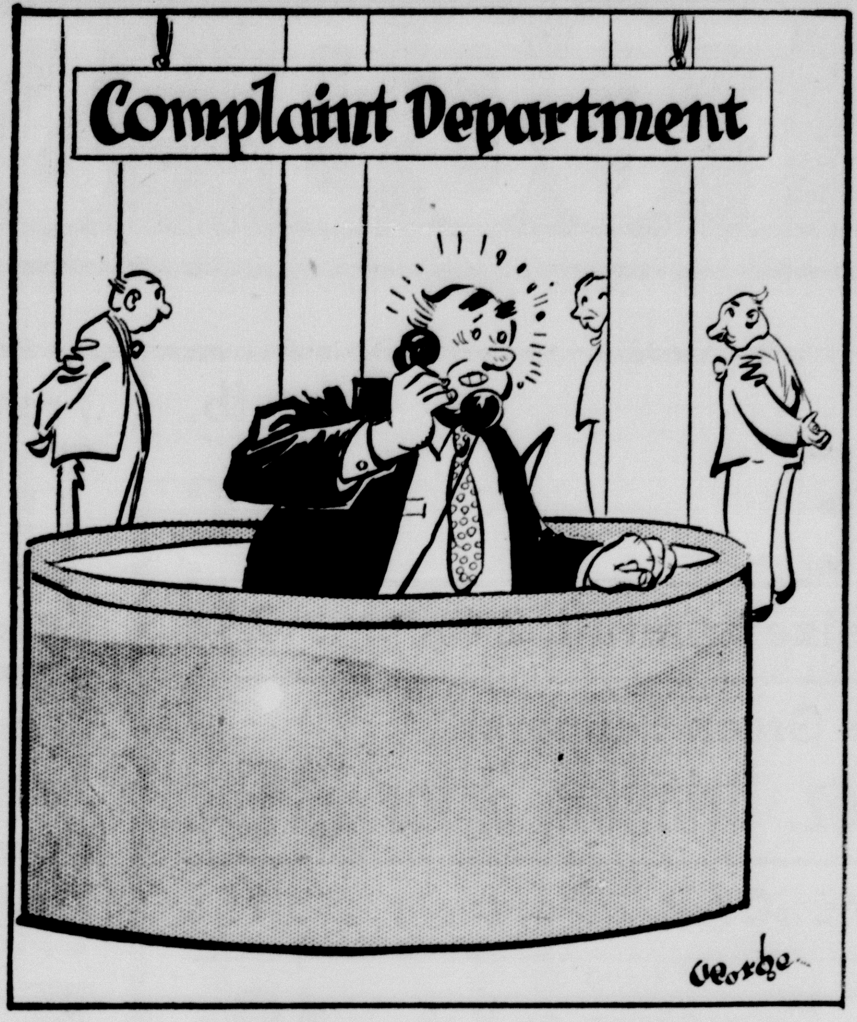
Ticklers

By George



"What's the matter with this place? Business is so slack, we've had only two squawks all day!"

GUESSWORK

An English story: Shronk stopped his motor car at a desolate crossroads and yelled to a farmer who lay on a cart of fertilizer: "Hey, Cornsilk, is this the way to Corydon?"

The farmer raised himself from the fertilizer in astonishment "By heck, stranger, how did you know my name is Cornsilk?" he asked.

"I guessed it," said the motorist.

"Then by heck," said the farmer as he drove on, "guess your way to Corydon."

TONGUE TWISTER

Telephoner: Long distance? I want to place a call to Marmariscotta, Me.

Operator: How do you spell that, please?

Telephoner: Shucks, lady, if I could spell it. I'd write.

CHANGED HIS MIND

Madge: If we are going to be married, you must give up smoking, drinking, and your clubs. Now isn't there something you could give up of your own accord?

Ted: Yes. All idea of marrying you.

THE EXPLANATION

Mrs. Youngbride: Now I know why it was Dick went to work this morning singing as I never heard him sing before.

Neighbor: What was it?

Mrs. Youngbride: Now I mistake and give him birdseed for breakfast instead of breakfast food.

LOT OF CRUST

A business man thought his staff was lazy, so he pinned up the following notice:

"Bread is the staff of life, but that is no reason why the life of our staff should be one continual loaf."

$34,000 in Tools Average Supply Many Industries

Suppose you wanted to go to work in the oil industry, began looking through the help-wanted column of a newspaper, and came on this item: "MAN WANTED: Exceptional opportunity for advancement in growing concern producing, refining, and marketing petroleum products. Applicant must provide his own tools or their equivalent, $34,000. Address Petroleum, Box 1950."

You would think, with reason, that this advertiser was about as eccentric as they come. You'll never see such an ad. Yet the fact is that someone must put up, on the average, $34,000 to provide the tools needed by each worker employed in oil, and many other industries. That is the amount of money that has been invested in the thousand-and-one kinds of equipment needed to make it into products ready for consumer use and to distribute them.

That money comes primarily from two sources. One is the investor—the man or woman whose savings make great enterprises possible. The other source is profits earned in the course of carrying on the business. A very large share of its post-war profits have not gone to stockholders at all—they have gone to expand and improve the plant. They have gone, in other words, into tools. And those tools have created more jobs and higher-paying jobs.

Of late, it has been rather the fashion to denounce profits as a wicked capitalist device. But without profits industry would slow and finally stop, unemployment would grow to a huge volume, and the whole economy would become static. We all accept the idea that the man who uses tools deserves fair wages. And so does the man who provides the tools.

HIS CONCERN

A democracy is a place where the man in the street is more concerned with a five-dollar deficit in the family budget than five billion in the national budget.

CLAIMS TO FAME

What Chiang Kai-shek's place in history will be otherwise we do not know, but he will certainly be recorded as the man who perfected the mobile capital.

The Answers

1. Just under 60 cents, as compared with the 1939 dollar.
2. $62,000,000.
3. $40,000,000,000.
4. 36.
5. United Kingdom, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, India, Pakistan and Ceylon, plus protectorates and colonies.
6. 588,154,000.
7. Average common salt (NaC1) content of sea water is 27.2 parts per 1,000.
8. First U. S. postage stamps went on sale in July 1847.
9. 79, with a student body of 23,670.
10. 160 schools, with 26,147 students.

a decline of 1½ in the total college attendance in all Texas colleges during the past two years.

During the same period there has been an increase of 44.61% in enrollment at West Texas State. The college to show the next largest increase in attendance shows only 24.15% increase, thus placing West Texas State with almost double the increase shown in any college in Texas.

"This increase has been brought about by your work and your faith in West Texas State," declared the President.

Dr. Cornette reviewed the football season of last fall, which started far above the expectation of the fans; then four games were lost; and a final comeback of the team with four straight vistories. This resulted in Frank Kimbrough being selected the coach of the year in the Border Conference by the sports writers. These experienced writers placed the Buffaloes at the top of the Border Conference. "You people of the Panhandle showed a strong community spirit which made it possible for the team to stage this comeback."

The next example of fine community spirit is shown in the proposed agreement between the Board of Regents and the Board of Trustees of the Canyon Schools. The agreement is one in which all will benefit. Dr. Cornette expressed his deep appreciation of this fine spirit.

Speaking directly of the interest of the college, Dr. Cornette declared, "We have one of the best colleges in Texas and in the United States."

He reviewed his experiences of the past 25 years in various colleges in different parts of the nation. Some people believe that the farther they go away from home and the more money they spend for education, the better education they will receive. West Texas State is good. More money is spent per students for instruction than in any one of several larger institutions down state, said the speaker.

West Texas State wants the most Democratic and the most Christian campus among the colleges. The speaker pointed out that there is a vast difference between denominationalism and Christianity. "We not only want to do the most good for the boys and girls who come to us, but we likewise want to do them the least harm."

Dr. Cornette called upon Coach Kimbrough and Ted Reid to illustrate his points with stories. In speaking of his appreciation of the people of this community, he called upon Houston Bright to sing "I Love Those Dear Hearts and Friendly People."

He described his reactions as he visited his old home in Kentucky where he returned for the commencement address this summer.

"The world begins at home," stated Dr. Cornette.

Delbert Lowes introduced the new directors for the coming year as follows: Clay Cooper, Bill Sternenberg, James L. Cole, A. G. Kieselbach; and the hold overs, T. S. Stevenson, O. W. Parker, Hosea Foster, Paul Lindsey and Johnnie McBroom.

Retiring members of the board are Clyde Warwick, Herschel Coffee, Elmer Wooten and Newton Crain.

Presentation of the 1949 award was the closing activity of the evening.

Music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Houston Bright. Dr. Roy L. Johnson gave the invocation and Rev. Win Matsler the benediction.

Clyde Warwick was toastmaster and reviewed some of the accomplishments of the Chamber during the past year.

The newly elected directors organized Monday night with the following officers who were selected to serve for the coming year:

O. W. (Bud) Parker, president.
Bill Sternenberg, vice president.
James L. Cole, secretary.

the state group to call an election 30 days after the approval of the proposed district. This would make the election set for about the end of March.

County Agent H. E. Shahan was asked by various farmers present what his attitude would be toward the establishment of such a Soil Conservation District. He replied that he was taking a neutral stand on the conservation question. That he would work either with the federal agency which would be established under such a board, or would continue with his work as in the past.

Objections having been raised to the creation of such a district, Mr. Shahan adviser land owners to visit with farmers and land owners in adjoining counties and see for themselves what the opinion is of those who have had experience with the operation of Soil Conservation Districts in these counties.

March of Dimes

Other contributions will be coming in from various clubs and organizations, and individuals are urged by Mrs. Elkins to make their contributions now, to boost the goal set for Randall County to $1,000.

One contribution made to the entire Texas Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, was made this week by Elmer D. Hall of the Weatherford Oil Tool Company at Weatherford. Mr. Hall has offered to use the four company planes which are kept at Weatherford, whenever they might be needed to transport a polio patient from one part of Texas to another location in Texas for medical care and treatment. He has also expressed a willingness to fly medical equipment if necessary.

Such generosity as exhibited by Mr. Hall should spur each individual to make his own cash contribution as high as possible to insure that the work of the National Foundation in fighting infantile paralysis may be carried out.

Pennies, dimes and dollars may be placed in the jars in the business houses, or contributions may be made through the various clubs and organizations or checks mailed directly to Mrs. C. O. Elkins.

Miss Jean Teague from Abilene and Miss Phyllis Herrington from Tulia were the week end guests of Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings. Miss Herrington is the granddaughter of Mrs. Gordon-Cummings. Both girls are students at Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

Roscoe Young of Strong City, Kansas, arrived Sunday to visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill. Mr. Young is a brother of Mrs. Hill.

Miss Elma Lynn Cummings spent last week end visiting her former roommate, Jamie Lee Reagan, and other friends at Texas Tech in Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gillis and Sibyl Ann and Mr. and Mrs. Dan K. Usery spent Sunday afternoon in Phillips with friends.

Letter From Reader

To the Canyon News:

Last week's News said: "Advertising of liquor should not be stopped, except by the people." Remember a federal judge said: "No man has an inherent right to make, drink, or sell liquor," and I add: "Nor advertise it."

The radio and daily papers force such advertising into our homes, for what? To get young girls and boys to try the much and beautifully recommended booze. They are not bidding for the alcoholics, but new recruits. C?

Such may be legally right, but morally wrong. You have not lost thousands of dollars by refusing such ads. One has to have, before he can lose. I say too, let's get right on this liquor business; Be against it in every way.

Canyon has been legally dry since 1900. Let's keep it that way. Lots of folks are glad and thankful that The News is dry, and I have heard many say so.

I notice the booze papers are squaking for the dear people to take care of the alcoholics. There's just one way—put the critters in jail a few days and kill the snakes which bite them—(the booze makers, sellers and advertisers). Also make them pay all damages caused by their alcoholics. Autos are insured for their damages, C?

Now cheer up, Mr. Editor, and let's try to keep Canyon morally clean. We have lots of help.

Best wishes and some profit for 1950.

JOHN KNIGHT.
(My 60th winter in Canyon.)

Thanks Mr. Knight for your good letter. We knew that when we wrote the editorial on the legal right of newspapers and magazines to carry liquor advertising that we would get a protest. We simply wanted to give our views on a question which is before Congress in the way of a bill to prohibit liquor advertising in all publications. So far as the liquor business is concerned, you may do all that you would like to do in the nefarious traffic, and we will help you. But until the people of America are ready and willing to permanently ban the stuff, we will not get far. In other words, Canyon and a majority of the Panhandle is dry, but so long as liquor is sold in a few counties, we shall still have liquor. As an example, we are told that one county—not Randall—is among the oldest dry counties in the state, yet consumes the largest amount of liquor. The people of that county, as a whole, are not up in arms, but their voices and their votes to really dry up that supposedly dry county. So far as we are concerned, we are willing to help you, Mr. Knight, and other ardent drys in Randall county to make this a really dry county. From the string of beer cans and whiskey bottles that decorate our streets and our highways, we are fearful that we have not progressed as far as we should in the past 60 years.—CWW.

Baptists Break Attendance Records

Two January attendance records have been broken by the First Baptist Church in Canyon, according to report of Pastor Roy L. Johnson. Although the Sunday School's annual average has been above 400 for over two years, never before has such a high average been held for any January, but during the month just closed the average was 437, according to Superintendent Arthur K. Goodman.

Training Union, the organization meeting immediately before the evening preaching hour, offering training for every age group provided for in Sunday School, has had a growing attendance for several years, but the monthly average for January 1950 was 175, which is a new high since no preceding January has such a figure on record. Mrs. A. B. Holt is the director of this organization which meets in seven departmental sections every Sunday at 6:45.

Louis Johnson, Defense Secretary, continues to be surprised by the fact that his efforts and those of Navy Secretary Francis P. Matthews to stamp out ideas about defense policies contrary to their own do not seem to succeed. Even though top officials still are meting out severe punishment to naval officers who have differed with them, they keep discovering that differences continue to exist and that smouldering resentment deepens.

GENERATIONS OF AMERICAN CHILDREN HAVE BEEN REMINDED OF THIS ADAGE—WHICH WAS VARIED IN THE CASE OF GIRLS TO: "PRETTY IS AS PRETTY DOES."

Dental Care Must Become Part of Child's Training

Solution of the nation's dental problems lies in making dental health education and dental care available to every child, said Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

He said it is possible to prevent loss of teeth from decay if a person starts early in life to follow these simple rules:

1. Early and frequent examination of the mouth by a dentist.
2. Early treatment of small cavities and other dental defects.
3. Proper diet with refined sugars held at a minimum.
4. Proper brushing of teeth after eating.

A child should be taken to the dentist shortly after the last of his first teeth appear at about the age of two, he declared. Frequent examinations and treatment of dental defects by dentists should follow, he added.

Experiments are under way in research laboratories to find the answer to dental decay and other dental diseases, he said, adding:

"It has been learned that the very active element, fluorine, can be used to curb dental decay to a large degree. Dentists are now applying a solution of sodium fluoride to the teeth of their child patients as a routine dental treatment.

"To improve the dental health of the children of this country, each community, through coordinated group activity, should assume its responsibility in putting an adequate dental health program into operation to meet adequately the needs of our children."

Henry Wallace put out tentative feelers to find if the Democratic Party would welcome him back into the fold if he decided to forsake his Progressive Party. Democrats are not yet showing any special enthusiasm for the return of a former Vice-President who left to set up a new party.

Thomas Dewey, New York's Governor, is not sparking much response with his idea of inducing Dwight Eisenhower to seek the Republican nomination for the New York Governorship this year. General Eisenhower is not venturing voluntarily into Republican politics, at least not now.

Governor Earl Warren of California is going to seek another term as Governor in a race that will pit him against James Roosevelt, son of the former President. A Warren victory would place him in the running for the 1952 Republican presidential nomination.

J. Howard McGrath, Attorney General, would like very much to work out a consent decree with the A & P so that he could drop his present antitrust suit against that company before election time. Mr. McGrath isn't happy at the public reaction to this suit as a result of company advertising of issues involved.

Thomas McCabe, Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, is not in favor of moves to tighten credit terms at this time even if Congress should give the Reserve Board more power over the supply of credit.

LET'S START OVER

Curious arithmetic is statement issued by Ministery of Education: "In the three months from June 1 to October 1. . . . "

Dean Acheson, U. S. Secretary of State, if pressed hard enough, is expected to make public the full story of where and in whose pockets great numbers of U. S. dollars of aid to Chiang Kai-shek ended up. U. S. officials, who have served in China, also might be allowed to tell the full story of how U. S. military assistance to Chiang was used.

John Snyder, Treasurer Secretary, is not now considering a big new loan to Great Britain to help the British fund the 8 billion dollars in war debt owed to India, Egypt and other nations. Britain has sounded out U. S. on help for dealing with these loans but hasn't had an encouraging response to date.

Navy Secretary Matthews is being mentioned as the man in line to become Ambassador to Spain when full diplomatic relations are reestablished with that country. The White House wants a prominent Catholic layman for that job, if it opens.

Thrift May Be a Crime in the Government Eye

The American Farm Bureau Federation recently issued an important statement of policy. The Federation affirmed its stand in favor of the laws which prohibit monopoly and restrictive practices in restraint of trade. It then said: "We do not, however, agree with the interpretations which apparently are being given these laws in certain recent cases and administrative rulings. In this highly controversial field it is important that distinction be made between conditions reflecting the effects of vigorous competitive actions and actual monopoly power. Size and area of activity are not necessarily indications of monopoly. Regulations should not be used to eliminate the possibility if integrated systems that are efficient and competitive. such systems have the possibility of bringing about a badly-needed reduction in the margins that now exisit between the producers and the consumers of many items."

This takes on a special significance in the light of the government's antitrust case against a big chain store system. This system obviously has no monopoly if anything—it must compete directly with other chains and with thousands of independent stores in the states in which it operates. It obviously is not destroying other merchants—they are growing and prospering and increasing their customers. The government's case, therefore, seems to be based on the idea that size is a crime—and reduction of prices to the public is also a crime.

If that idea should ever prevail, we can quit talking high living standards and abundance and get ready for much lower standards and scarcity. Efficiency, economy and good service will be out of date. The dollar will shrink some more. Is that what the American people really want?

New Frigidaire, 7.7 cu. ft. $214.50. Farlow Electric.

Idea of U. S. loans through something like a world RFC is being considered as a program to follow the Marshall Plan with its gifts to other countries. Need for dollars on a large scale is expected to continue after gifts end, and a plan for long-term, low interest loans is beginning to be thought of with official favor.

May Tse-tung, boss of Communist China, is having trouble in negotiations with Russia's Stalin. Mao failed last year to send to Russia all the Manchurian food he promised, and Stalin, as a result, has been trying to drive a hard bargain with the Chinese.

Spain's Generalissimo Franco still has quite a bit of waiting to do before he gets back into full good standing with this country. There is no present intention to rush to Franco's aid with economic help.

Cardinals Trample Eagles, 41-33; Stop Memphis Cyclones, 41-34

Canyon Places Six Cagemen On Kolander's Honor Roll

Canyon's Eagles dropped a hard fought battle, 41-33 to Price College at the Price College gym Friday night. The Eagles led 12-11 at the end of the first quarter and 17-14 after the first half of play, but the Cardinals came back to tie the game up 25-25 at the close of the third quarter and on to win the first tilt between them and the Eagles.

Ray Burrus was the big man of the game with 12 tallys to his credit. Joe Abbott and Troy Burrus followed with seven and five, respectively.

Eagles Down Cyclones

The Eagles downed the Memphis Cyclones Saturday night 41-34. This was the Eagles second win this season over last year's state champions.

Canyon trailed 13-9 after the first quarter, tied up the conflict 19-19 at the half and were behind 31-27 at the end of the third quarter. In the last period the Eagles meshed 14 points with Brue Winn scoring four, Troy Burrus four, Ray Burrus four and Bob Busteed two tallys, while holding the Cardinals to three points in the last stanza.

Troy Burrus was high man of this contest with 18, trailed by Bruce Winn with seven and Ray Burrus and Bob Busteed garnered two field goals and two free tosses a piece for six points each. Garland Butler rang the bucket for four baskets.

Canyon Place Six

Canyon placed six men on Jerry Kolander's Honor Roll of the Amarillo News Globe this week as follows: High scoring: Troy and Ray Burrus, Defensive play: Bob Busteed, Floor play: Bruce Winn, Joe Abbott and Garland Butler. Their honors were based on performances turned in during the Price College and Hereford games.

The Canyon "B" team lost 24-33 to the Price College "B" Friday night. Price got off to a good start and held the lead all the way. Bob Ratliff took scoring laurels with seven markers, shadowed by Glenn Prater with four. Roy McCarter, Harrell Slack, Robert McClendon and Rex Griffin all ripped the net for 3 point each.

"B" Team Wins

The "B" team atoned for their defeat by smothering the Memphis "B" spuadders 26-17 here last Saturday night.

Jim Wooten was highest on the scoring list with eight markers, followed by Glenn Prater and Roy McCarter with seven and six respectively.

Details for the Plainview games will follow in the next edition as this one had gone to press before game time, Tuesday night.

LOVE US? MAYBE, YES?

Wonder how W. T. students will like C. H. S.? Maybe they'll love it, and then again maybe they won't!

Any student of Canyon High School would have very little difficulty expounding his school's merits, but of course, being prejudiced, his view-point might have little weight with a confirmed "W. T.'er."

Heavens knows what would happen if C. H. S. was forced to move to W. T. Wails of agony would most likely prevail, along with flying hair and heated arguments, progressing blow by blow.

No doubt, a new style of filing fingernails would develop among the feminine half of the students. That style being long sharp points, the use of which will be left to the reader's imagination.

However, there is the possibility that W. T. students will see Canyon High as it really is, the most wonderful, fair, and magnificent school in existence. A-hem-m!! In that case, an atmosphere of pure love and harmony would soon come into existence among parties harboring the same convictions.

Putting all kidding aside though, the students of both schools will get along "just swell" if each one does his part to make school life congenial by simply following the Golden Rule.

Canyon High can be a bigger and better school because of the addition of W. T.'s students with very little effort, and it can turn out to be just One Big Happy Family.

"Such a darlin' thing" is a frequent comment about Jim Scott's rust corduroy sport jacket.

Exceedingly becoming is the brown print blouse Mary Elizabeth Jennings wore to school Monday. It is fashioned with a high neckline and cap sleeves.

Luscious and delectable, a certain violet sweater gives Sue Jennings a look both attractive and pleasing. By the way, it's a fuzzy one with a neckline styled in the oriental way.

That red-headed Sue Ann Kinney and her baby blue sweater certainly do things for each other.

Mrs. J. E. Miller presented an attractive picture this week in a dusty rose, long sleeved dress complemented with an aqua and maroon scarf.

Mickey King's green shirt gives one a delightful lift every time one looks at it.

Bennie Sue Boswell was quite authentically attired in a fringed leather packet Monday (the western kind which other girls drool over).

CHS Library Receives Books For Junior High Reading List

CHS Library has received a total of sixty-one new fiction books for junior high age. Some of these are new copies of books which we already have in our library. Thirteen of these books given as a gift by Mrs. DeGraffenried. Fourteen are being prepared for circulation and the remaining thirty-four are already placed on the shelves.

Mysteries, dog stories, and other common topics for fiction are included in the group.

In this group of books, three, "Dark Frigate" by Hawes, "Rabbit Hill" by Lawsen and "Twenty-One Balloons" by Du Bois, have received the Newberry Medal Award.

Another popular book now being ready everywhere by everybody is "Top Kick U. S. Army Horse" by Watson.

Eagle Eggs Overrun Elizabeth Nixson Basketballers by 22-17

The Canyon Eagle-Eggs played host to the Elizabeth Nixson eighth graders here last Tuesday and came out on the top of a 22-17 score.

R. D. Wheelock's eighth graders built up a 13-10 lead at the end of the first half. Arlen Ruthart headed the scoring for the game with six markers, followed by Larry Stroup with four and Edel Money with three.

CACTUS CAL

Rumor has it that Donna Erwin thinks her STEADY, Bruce Winn, is just about "it." Could this by any chance be a hint to a certain boy to stop pestering Donna for dates?

Wow! Do my eyes deceive me or is it—yep, it is—Geneva Gressett with—no, not Stanley Schaeffer, but Sterling Cummings. Wha' hoppened?

Flashy, flash! I hear that Ava Dooley and Charles Mobley journeyed to Clovis Sunday—to see the model airplane shows.

Dorothy McReynold's interests are turned toward W. T. these days. Hum-m-m. I wonder if George Dowlen could be the reason?

Florence Coffee and Raymond Hinders certainly do enjoy ball games—especially when they're together, as they were Saturday night. Ditto for Nelda Ruthart and Richmond Payne.

In this space I'd like to announce that Jo Parker, Joanna Haines and Katie Furlow are NOT going steady. Here's your chance boys.

Speaking of Joanna, she looked as if she were having a gay time Sunday night with Marvin Smith from WTSC. With them were Barbara McDougal and Harry Smith.

A new romance brewin' at the old brain factory is that of Sue Ann Kinney and Ray Thomas.

Joyce Payne and Berkeley SoRelle make an interesting couple—yes?

Question of the week:
Which does Alice Jean Gill like best—Peanut Plant or his new Ford?

Word reaches these tired old ears that Tommy Gooch is a yearnin' ta' go with Lila Mae Hunter. Best o' luck to ya' son.

Shirley White and Hollis Maynard from WT are a cute combination.

An old flame burns brightly once again—Jim Arnold and Joyce Thurmon I'm speakin' of.

Virginia Holt has MONEY on the brain these days—not the spending kind either.

Guess what? Sue Jennings is still going steady with M. E. Rhoades. Nice going kids.

Lura Nell Prichard and Clifton Dodson seem to enjoy each other's company, or so we hear.

Brewster Boy May Open Closet Door

What can be in that closet? Here, don't open the door; that is reserved for "The Brewster Boy," alone, "Juniors will unravel this mystery February 23. Yes, that is the night set for the play.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pool and Rosie Bates, all senior speech students at West Texas State College, have been assisting Mr. Ray Schultz in the direction of the play.

Rosie Bates began helping last week. He will write the program and assist Mr. and Mrs. Pool with the makeup.

Tickets for the play will be on sale shortly. The prices of which will be given later.

"The juniors in the play know their parts and are now working on the third act. They practice nights from 7:00 to 10:00, Monday through Friday, except when there is a ball game, then they practice from 3:45 to 5:00 in the afternoons," according to Ray Schultz.

Homemaking Girls Take Field Trip Through Various Stores

In connection with their unit of interior decoration, the H. E. III class made a field trip last Thursday morning to Amarillo.

Practically every well-known period of furniture was seen during the trip. An interesting lecture was given by the interior decorator at J. W. Hill Furniture Co. She pointed out the various periods of furniture emphasizing their desirability of design and construction. She also discussed color schemes and modern trends in room arrangement and furniture designs.

An interesting discussion in table appointments was directed by Miss Patton at Bagot Hardware Co. She set a dining table with different types of table appointments discussing the desirability of each.

The girls seemed to enjoy their trip immensely and obtained a greater knowledge and appreciation for good furniture," stated Mrs. Bell.

Six students have joined CHS this semester. They are: Bobby Lee Gibson, Jimmy Gibson, Bill Gibson, Jim Russell, Laueran Blasingame and Norman Stone.

Nancy Nicklaus, former student of CHS, attended the Canyon ball game Saturday night.

Ag Chapter Trys Skill In Contest

The Canyon chapter of the FFA, sponsored by T. L. Devin, will participate in the leadership contest at Dimmitt, Texas, Saturday. The Hereford district, composed of eight schools: Canyon, Hereford, Dimmitt, Bovina, Lazbuddy, Hart, Friona, and Farwell will contend.

The meet, designed to develop leadership and confidence among boys, will consist of a junior and senior division. Both divisions will have contests in chapter conducting, farm skill demonstration and a future farmer's quiz. Mr. Devin disclosed he will enter teams in the chapter conducting and farm demonstration units of the junior and senior divisions.

Last year's team placed third in both divisions but were defeated in the state meet at Huntsville. The area contest will be held February 18, in Amarillo. The state meet, March 18, at Huntsville.

Junior Team Tilts WT 35-30 Downs Elizabeth Nixson 16-12

Two wins highlighted the activities of the rip-snortin' Canyon junior team, coached by Lloyd Johnson, last week.

In a clash with W. T. junior team on Tuesday, the Canyon boys claimed the victory by a score of 35-30. At the half Johnson's hard-hitting cagers were on the long-end of a score of 18-14.

Tommy Middleton took high point honors with a total of 15 tallys. Arlen Ruthart followed with 7 and Edel Money had 6.

Elizabeth Nixson Junior High went down in defeat to the tune of 16-12 in a hard fought game on Thursday. This was a terrific defensive battle for both teams, and at the half the Canyon basketeers were ahead by the score of 7-5.

Middleton once again captured the scoring laurels by ringing the basket for 7 goals, while Money was close behind with 6.

Their next game will be on Monday with Horace Mann.

Grade Notes

Mrs. Roy Montgomery celebrated her daughter, Jerry Ann's seventh birthday with a party Thursday. The children made caps using valentine motives. Refreshments were cocoa and a beautiful white birthday cake with pink candles. Mrs. R. W. Sour Dough Biscuits Tempt Hungry Critters Saturday

Law, how them sour dough biscuits went Saturday! I low as how many critters' sweet tooth was bothering them considerably. Every last passel of buns sold by 5:30 p. m. Them sales girls, Dana Rice, Sue Jennings, and Peggy Moore shore did work selling sweet tooth fillings.

All of $53 was cleared for the Senior Treasury. With this money, the class can make a down payment on a trip or a gift to CHS. Even the poor members of the bunch who couldn't rake up a bit of biscuit dough brought the other kind. Yes, sir, shore as shootin' they coughed it up cheerfully.

Jimmy Lindsey, now a student at Texas A. & M., visited Canyon High School Friday.

Argentine sources acknowledge trade with Spain has shrunk.

Both To Represent School In WTSC Spring Pageant

In an extra-close contest, Jo Parker and Joe Abbott were elected Personality King and Queen of CHS. In the first run off, Jo Parker tied with Donna Erwin for queen, and Joe Abbott tied with Bruce Winn for king, an unusual occurrence in itself.

Jo and Joe were favorites in their Junior year, another interesting coincidence, and, as Juniors, their pictures are to be found in the favorite section of last year's annual, and they will repeat this year.

Students' Honors

Jo became a student of CHS the last semester of her sophomore year. Her honors include: in her sophomore year: prettiest girl; in her Junior year, class favorite, member of Junior Play Cast, football queen; her Senior year, reporter for FHA., Editor of the Eagle's Tale, first semester, member of Soaring Wings Staff, and football queen attendant. She was also a member of FHA for two and one half years.

Joe has spent all of his school life at CHS except for one semester, when he attended school at Childress, Texas.

Among his honors are: in his Junior year, president of his class, class favorite, All-District in basketball; in his Senior year, honorable mention in All-Regional, made second All-District in football, co-captain of football, four years member of FFA, lettered three years in football, three years in basketball, and two years in track.

They will represent Canyon High School in the Panhandle-Plains Personality Pageant at West Texas State College in the spring.

Noah Cudd Assists Schultz In Teaching

Noah Cudd, of West Texas State College, will do his practice teaching with Mr. Ray Schultz in Driver's Education this semester. He will have charge of the class room teaching, while Mr. Schultz directs all the "behind the wheel" instruction. In this manner, each student can be in the car once a week. Mr. Schultz plans to take five students out at one time for instruction. The class of twenty-four is divided into five sections.

This term, the students are having workbooks, which are not to be taken from the room. This will help Noah in having something for the students to do at all times. Before, when the car was out, the other students went to the study hall, but this semester the pupils will be busy every day either in the car or in the class room. This arrangement helps to give them a better chance to learn more about this subject.

Humans Get Paid To Serve Science As 'Guinea Pigs'

LONDON.—Come in and have a free honeymoon on the Harvard hospital here. In fact, you'll get paid for it.

Of course, there's a catch. The catch is that you are expected to catch a cold and sniffle a week or 10 days for science.

The hospital is in the midst of an elaborate research, financed by the ministry of health, to learn the truth about colds, what starts them and how they can be cured.

So, it offers holidays with pay to persons who don't mind putting up with a little fever. The inconvenience of enduring a nice little controlled cold, of having aches and sneezes charted by eager scientists, hasn't discouraged volunteers.

In three years more than 1,500 persons have agreed to be guinea pigs and what they have contributed to the literature of cold research has filled many fat volumes.

Could Use Chimps

"We could use chimpanzees," hospital officials say, "but they are more expensive to get and support than human volunteers."

Certain conditions are attached to the paid honeymoon or holiday offer.

Volunteers are paid three shillings (about 42 cents) a day and are entitled to a pint of free beer. They live in comfortable, prefabricated apartments with radios and telephones. There is a lot of good food, and for entertainment there are walks in the pleasant countryside, books and facilities for badminton and table tennis.

But the volunteers must keep to themselves. Their colds must be strictly their own private affairs, uncontaminated by wildcat colds or other vagrant diseases they might pick up from outsiders.

Must Remain Aloof

They must not go into taverns, shops or theaters, or ride on busses and trams. They must not permit an outsider to approach within 30 feet.

So strict is this condition that a special technique has been developed to deliver food to the pampered folks who have colds on purpose. A waiter goes to a pre-fab door with food in specially designed containers. He sets it down, rings the bell and runs. The volunteer within must count to 60 before opening the door, and by that time the waiter is expected to be 30 feet away.

For the isolated volunteers it usually is a pleasant fortnight to sit quietly and think about things. It's an ideal opportunity for a couple of friends to get off by themselves. Honeymooners are favored because they are less likely than others to stray around impatiently.

Agronomist Claims America Could Feed 200 Millions

MILWAUKEE.—According to one expert in the field, America has nothing to worry about in the matter of feeding its rapidly-increasing population. Firman E. Bear, retiring president of the American society of agronomy, said that this nation can easily feed a population of 200 million.

"We need have no fear whatever of any lack of capacity to feed ourselves permanently in accordance with our desires," he said. Continuing, he pointed out, "all we have to do is make continuing use of the abundant resources at our command."

To step up food producing for an estimated 200 million persons by the year 2,000, Bear said the nation could:

Irrigate from 23 to 31 million acres of arid and semiarid land, perhaps using distilled sea water for some projects.

Drain 18 million acres of swamps.

Increase yields per acre of corn, wheat and other crops by use of fertilizers, chemical insect killers and disease control and better varieties.

Increase soil conservation.

Increase milk production by use of artificial insemination and of hormones to stimulate conception, mammary development and milk secretion.

Raise the annual fish catch by 50 per cent by the construction of fish ponds and tripling their yield of 200 pounds per acre with proper management.

Use more efficiently the energies of the sun, water and atom.

Hems of Hockey Skirts Change Little in Years

JOHANNESBURG.—Six inches is the measurement which links 40 years in the history of women's hockey, according to Mrs. F. Connor, a veteran whose playing days date back to the early days in South Africa.

In 1909, skirts were worn six inches above the ankle; now they are worn six inches above the knee. Regulation uniform then was a white shirtwaist, a tie, and a dark, flared skirt.

As long hair was the vogue, players wore knitted caps to keep their tresses up.

Buffaloes Are Not Out of Race For Loop Championship---10 Games Yet

Practice spirit in Burton Gym the past week indicate strongly that the West Texas State Buffalo cage team is definitely not out of the running for the 1950 Border Conference basketball pennant.

Although the Herd lost three straight loop tilts in Arizona last week, the team and Coach Gus Miller realize full well that those same Arizona schools yet face two rugged trips into the middle and eastern section of the sprawling cactus circuit. The squad also realizes that they must win all their remaining loop tussles to bolster championship chances.

Topmost in the eyes of the Buff cagers is February 2 when West Texas State invades Abilene to repay a conference visit to Hardin-Simmons University. Hardin-Simmons gave the Herd a good game in Burton Gym and are always double-tough on the hardwoods of Rose Field House. Other teams the Buffs must face on foe courts are Texas Western, New Mexico A&M and New Mexico University.

Of their 10 remaining conference games, 6 will be in Burton Gym.

Slated as the next rival to come to Canyon is Flagstaff on February 8. The lumberjacks humiliated the Herd at Flagstaff last week, 44-37, and it is a cinch Miller and his crew will be ready for revenge. Three days later, February 11, potent Tempe will move into Burton for a loop test. Tempe nosed out the Herd 68-63 in a great game last week. Arizona's leading Wildcats will not make an appearance in Burton Gym until March 1.

Three Buff cagers are currently ranked in the 20 leading conference scorers. In seventh place is Sammy Malone, Stratford guard, with 77 points in 6 games for an average of 12.8. Closely following him is fellow townsman Bill Allen. forward, with an 11.3 average Hubert Kitchens, Childress guard, holds down the 19th slot with a loop average of 9.3 per game.

Husky Wade Oliver, Tempe pivot man is leading the Border loop with an 18.8 average in 4 games. Paul Penner, Arizona's giant center, is in second place with a 16.2 in 5 tilts.

Hopes of the Buff cagers soared this week when Dwaine (Slim) Stewart, high-scoring Canyon forward who injured a foot in practice following the second game of the season, returned to the practice court. Stewart probably will not see much action for a few more games but he may be a key man in the loop stretch drive.

Range Lands To Be Increased For Cattle Raising

Writing in Country Gentleman, Fred Bailey says, "Work is to start next spring on one of the largest reforestation and revegetation programs ever undertaken by the Forest Service. It is to include 4,000,000 acres of burned and cut-over forest land and 83,000,000 acres of range land in need of reseeding. . . . Forest Service officials estimate the program when completed, will enable the range lands to handle five to 10 times as many livestock as at present."

This is significant in the light of recent developments. This country is a big meat consumer. Yet leading authorities on diet are now convinced that a still higher level of average consumption is extremely desirable in order to build our health and stamina as a people. Meat is one of the best sources of protein—and protein, the scientist have found, is the food element which does the most to create physical strength, resistance and mental morale. In many kinds of illness high-protein diets are now prescribed.

It is forecast that the nation's livestock population will increase very substantially during the next few years. Various reasons are responsbile. One is our large supply of feed grains and grasses—produce which in many instances would be wasted entirely unless used for animal husbandry. Another is that meat animals can be raised on either a small or large scale almost anywhere. And still another is that, in the packing industry, the farmer has a year-round cash market for his livestock.

The projected increase in range lands under Forest Service direction fits in with these developments. The meat industry, in all its ramifications, is a big factor in American living and the American economy.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our dear friends for their sympathy and many deeds of kindness during the illness and passing of our beloved husband and father. Mrs. W. M. Amason and family.

Former Pastor To Return For Revival

A former pastor of the Baptist church in Canyon, Lyn Claybrook of Kentucky, has been invited to return for the Spring revival meeting, April 9-23.

Rev. Claybrook was pastor in Canyon from 1923 to 1928, during construction of the building now used by the congregation. Preceding his coming a location had been purchased for a building to replace the old one at Fourth Avenue and 13th Street. This original building had been in use since the beginning of the century but had served its day, and the congregation had grown too large for it. Plans were drawn for the present building in 1924, and revised in 1925. The unfinished building was occupied in 1927, and Pastor Claybrook left Canyon about a year later.

During the "depression years" the congregation used the unfinished building while struggling with a large debt for what had been built, and during the pastorate of Roy L. Johnson which began in 1940, the building was completed, along with many other improvements in Baptist equipment in Canyon. Many friends of Rev. Claybrook are anxious for him to see the building that was a dream of his perhaps more than any other person, unless it was Dr. J. A. Hill who served on the building committee, and insisted on a building of sufficient size for future growth.

William M. Boyle, Jr., Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is picking up word from the grass roots that the Truman popularity with farmers and with some groups of workers, recently at a high, has been slipping somewhat of late. Farm sentiment is adversely affected by low prices for chickens, for eggs and by lower prices for hogs. Farmers thought the President had promised to keep their prices high.

President Truman himself junked the "Truman doctrine," with its pledge to stop Communism wherever it raised its head in the world, when the costs of carrying out that pledge promised to skyrocket. The President backed away when his doctrine called for use of U. S. military forces —with unpredictable results if enforcement was to be effective.

There's small revenge in words, but words may be greatly revenged. —Benjamin Franklin.
